

CROWN CRO - FACT SHEET 2018

CROWN CRO

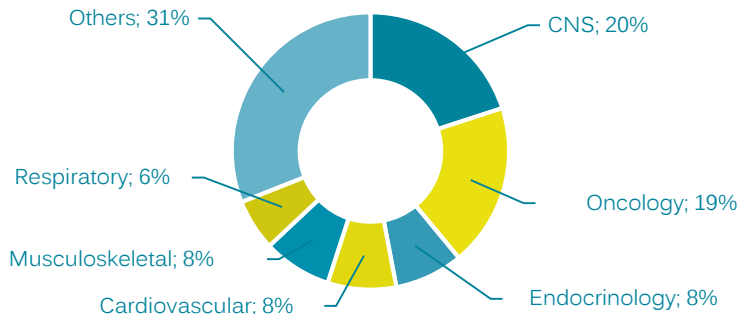

Crown CRO is a privately owned Finnish CRO founded in 2005. Our headquarters are in Espoo, which is located in Finland's capital city region. Crown CRO provides full service clinical, data and safety operations related to clinical development.

SERVICES

Our services cover Phase I – IV clinical development from protocol design to final reporting or any parts of the trial in various business models. Data services, Regulatory consulting, Pharmacovigilance, QA, Study Rescue Services and Medical Translation services complete the service package.

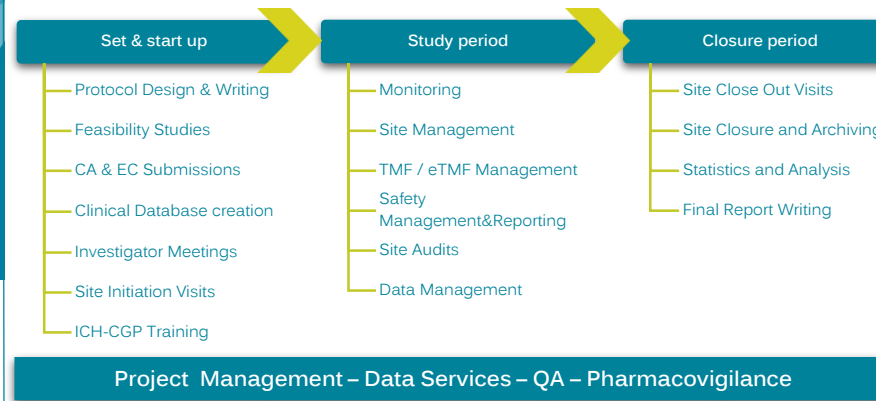

Our passion for research across all our in-house Full-Service functions which provide effective and innovative solutions with seamless cooperation for Phase I-III trials in Europe with special focus on Nordic-Baltic area

Key therapeutic areas

In numbers:

- 923 – Number of trials our team has been involved in
- 125 – Number of Crown employees
- 15 – Countries where Crown CRO is conducting trials
- 14,5 – Turnover for 2017 in M€
- 7 – Offices in various countries
- 2 – Our staff turnover %

The local knowledge and expertise of our highly experienced team is what is behind our success. The understanding of local regulatory processes combined with a wide network of investigators and Key Opinion Leaders enables us to successfully complete our commitments to our customers.

Business models

We provide high customer focus and attention, with flexibility for your benefit based on various business models. Our flat organization is able provide high value for your money and ensures an agile and smooth study conduct with the highest quality standards.

Crown CRO offices are located in Finland, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania. We have ongoing trials managed by our employees in Netherlands, Belgium, UK, Iceland, Ukraine and Belarus. Rest of the Europe and USA we cover through our qualified CRO network.

